

Jésus Guerrero, D.D., Th.D.
Presiding Bishop and
AEGA Executive Board Member

Bishop Guerrero is the pastor of United Christians House of Prayer in Austin, Texas which he founded more than 30 years ago. With strong influence in the Latino community, he successfully molded several Latino congregations into one unified body of believers. He currently serves as the Director of AEGA Latino Churches. And as for his preaching...if you've never heard "Bro Jesse" (as he is affectionately referred to), you've really missed a blessing! He's the only person we know who can preach one sentence in English, then one in Spanish - and never lose his train of thought! God has a great anointing on his life and ministry.

AEGA is honored to have Bishop Guerrero as an Executive Board member and Presiding Bishop. He is the General Treasurer on the board. God has blessed him with a wonderful and dedicated wife, Rev. Sandra as well as children and grandchildren.
